

The QUEENSLANDER PICTORIAL.

The crowded tramp train arrives at Bragton for dinner and before men look out for friends.

GOING AWAY.

W. Caragham, photo.

A few minutes later the station is a scene of busy activity.

Looked up for the division nation.

Getting in business.

A lucky soldier.

Good-bye.

STATIONER-
MAY 1903.
THE STATE SCHOOL, NOW UNDER SURVEY
—
W. C. Cole, photo.

10TH REINFORCEMENTS FROM QUEENSLAND, 1917-18. PHOTOGRAPHED IN QUEENSLAND.

—James and Sons Studio.

OSPREY MONUMENT - GILBERT ISLANDS

ARRIVAL OF THE NEW ADMINISTRATOR,
BRIGADIER-GENERAL G. J. JOHNSTON, C.B., C.M.G., V.D.

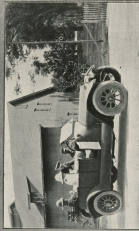

His Excellency (second from left) leaving the wharf with Lieut. Colonel Mackenzie, Deputy Judge-Advocate-General, Commander Banks and Captain Graham (Military Secretary).

Towing the statue.

Inspecting the Guard of Honour

Leaving for Government House

Harbour and City.

ONE OF THE MAIN STREETS.

A MESSAGE TO AUSTRALIA?

SCENES IN ——— VLADIVOSTOK, SIBERIA.

Meeting of the revolutionists in Central main Street.

The "Reds" parade around the corner of the Cathedral towards the large number of women revolutionists joined in.

Harbour of Vladivostok— at the left side of the picture stands the Naval Station with the wharves and on the right are seen the forts.

“THE MACNAB”

24,200 GUINEAS FOR A RAE BURN.

When Kantors painted this striking portrait of "The Maestro" he concentrated ideas and feelings in sketching a simple man with the incomparable spirit of the Highmaster in all his simplicity. Highlighted in the uniform of the magnificent military ordered service of the Grandfather Familia, the master (and hero) lived later as French manure by Kantors as he quietly shows himself in his, and as the proud and indomitable Highmaster myself Kantors too. And will see the empty house is today. The spirit of the Maestro is still present and in the fields of Flamingo there have been days with a Highmaster, mostly of the building of the race. There is still a kind of phantom legend in Southern Brazil. The Maestro, and it was in full with shortly after the death of the Chebala who was buried near the grave of Piquet. In the race "Vieira do Famoso" a French victor in 1914 was witness shared the Western "Masculine" by 1944 the ideal portrait of a man within 1.5-2 km.

OTTE, MICHAEL 100 10th St., Brooklyn, N.Y.

THE ORIGINAL PICTURE THE PROPERTY OF NEWM INCENSE & SONS LTD

The Wanwan are a very old class and in the South they are called "The Children of the Abyss," meaning those descended to the depths of time.

Michael, in the reign of Alexander II, they were acknowledged as a powerful and influential family. Their possessions were situated on the side of Loch Fy and stretched along the coast to the Boddich in the land of Boddichian. Francis the apostle, nephew of the king, died in May, 1918, and was succeeded by his nephew, Mr. Sweeney, who compelled to sell his estate and with some hundreds of his slaves fled emigrated to Canada.

In this variable pooling Rasthorn declines. (The Almon is the standing, uniform

all his regiment,
consisting of a green
jacket with silver
buttons; red breeches;
red hat and gaiters;
single-headed sword;
tarnish, goggles,
and black shoes;
armrest with a cloth,
brooches, — and
drilled, a lieutenant of the 10th and who he finds on his ship
is always standing
in a discipline
passing a great
at his right hand.
His platoon was established at the Plaza
Madero in 1870,
and has since been
on duty at various times. Subsequently, notably in 1890 in 1891, while residing there made it possible to the general public.

Last year the painting, which had formed part of the collection of the Marquis of Blandford, was offered at auction at Christie's (London) and attracted competition. It was purchased by Sir Thomas Baring for 24,000 guineas.

Looking at the pairing one can appreciate the truth of Brad's saying:

about 100

FRED BEN JENSEN.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Jensen, Kongsmin, a pioneer of war in the north.

EMORY E. W. WALDRON.
Major son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Waldron, Kongsmin, who has been awarded the D.F.M. for conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty in organizing a party, being sent to assist a machine gun that was getting badly damaged by the enemy, and being a prisoner. When his father came home a month later, he took command of the platoon for two days before being released.

LARRY WHITECK.

Officer commanding the mounted reinforcements in the group on page 64.

—son and Mary studies.

"FISHING" BY STEADFAST BATH BEACH.

GERMANY WAR PRISONERS IN THE CAMP AT MURK, GERMANY.

Prisoner Tom Hovick, son of Captain and Mrs. Hovick, Kongsmin, is the fourth man in the back row.

AUSTRALIAN PRISONERS OF WAR AT MURK, WHITVALLA, GERMANY.

Private Ben Power, of Oregon, is the second man in the back row, standing—the War Prisoner Series.

DEFENSES ARMY, BIRMINGHAM, ENGLAND.

Recently presented by Lord Chamberlain to the nation. Although taken from Greenhampton, "the high of order" is a reminder of the British, in the extreme north, on the front, in the north-west of Britain. In the May's time in the town of the White House. It's not included in the photograph of the M. W. House.

